

CECOS College, London

"We are satisfied with the detailed structure of Academia SIS. We are using attendance, academics, time-table, fees, and other modules. The staff is pleased with how well-designed and supportive the software is. We are quite delighted with the post-sale services, and we recommend Academia for all educators who are looking for the digital transformation of their institutions."

Director of Communication, CECOS College, London

Pressing Challenges

Solution by Academia

 Cumbersome manual process to capture student inquiries	 Integrated online application form with automated inquiry management
 Manual timetable scheduling and last-minute changes	 Centralized timetable management with real-time updates and substitution handling
 Document-based student record management using MS Word	 Automated document generation from student records
 Pen-and-paper attendance and manual percentage calculation	 Smart attendance marking with performance-linked analytics
 Complex and manual fee and commission management	 Automated fee and agent commission modules with built-in reporting
 Excel-based exams and mark sheet processing	 Customized exam and marksheet automation
 Manual Learning Plan creation and grade tracking	 Digitized LPM and ILP generation with academic and non-academic data
 Email-based absence approvals and inefficient communication	 Centralized portal for absence requests and approvals
 Fragmented data across campuses and lack of integration	 Centralized, role-based multi-campus data management
 Lack of automation across key administrative processes	 End-to-end digital transformation with integrated modules
